What do you like best about this course?

These comments are intended for all instructors.

Comments
I liked the group activities.
I doesn't pile on to much work
The topics presented and eventually used in the essays.
It helped me write analytical essays and get better at the analysis portion of my writing.
Time I had for the assignments.
I liked how the essays were structured and consistent throughout the course; I did not have too much trouble finishing and submitting an essay I was proud of. The class does not have too much engagement but I found it easy to taslk to my teacher and peers.
What I liked most about this course is how I was able to build on my writing skills. I can confidently say that I came out of this course a better writer, and you can see the difference from my first essay to my final essay.

I like that students got to learn many techniques on how to strength their thesis, evidences, and overall essay; for example, the Uneven U

If you were teaching this course, what would you do differently?

Comments
Nothing.
I would make interactive activities apart of learning in the class
Possibly teach students how to introduce quotes
N/A
Change up some of the prompts.
I would incorporate more in class writing time so students could ask questions about the prompts or essay in general as they are writing.
Not too much I liked the way the course was set up, but I think I would change up some of the required readings, some of them are a bit niche/ not very interesting to write about in my opinion.

I would provide feedback for rough drafts also.

| Out of my of my professor, Professor Yildiz was one of the more laidback and understanding professors ive had so far in a good way. Even if you weren't doing the greatest in the class, he still complements stuff that you have improved on. |
| No not very much I missed the class for a period of time due to me being sick and I was failed and couldn't do anything about it |
| Professor Yildiz didn't really encourage my intellectual growth or progress, but he did provide helpful constructive criticism to improve each essay. |
| Professor Yildiz, taught me to take readings and look into them in a deeper way. Taking past things I have learned or studied and connecting them with the current readings on which our essays were based. By doing this, I was able to extract more from texts and expand more on ideas that I thought were originally too small. |
| He helped me figure out what I was doing wrong in my analytical essays, and showed me a type of formula I could use to help me create my essay not only quicker, but easier and more efficiently. |
| helped me put my thoughts onto a paper clearer |
| The instructor did a great job at asking deeper question about the text that requires students to think about the stories/ novel with a different perspective. He did a good job getting everyone to participate in group discussion although at times it can be difficult. |

Professor Altug was very personable and a joy to speak with. He was very helpful when asked questions, and if he noticed many students struggled in a specific area he would make sure to go over and teach it in class.
